Additions to agenda

Approval of Minutes – Nelson made motion to approve minutes as presented. Brandy 2nd. All in favor.

Public Participation

Old Business

- Sewer project update/review – First round of monies have been received from CDBG & checks written to contractor & GRHPC for admin costs. Council toured the construction site along with Cory Pate from Allstate.
- Street improvements update – Nelson reached out to Sarah Golden with CDBG but hasn't yet had a response. Seeking a plan for moving forward once the wastewater project is wrapped up.
- Park improvements/equipment – Waiting for quote from park equipment vendor for installation and updated expected ship date.
- COVID monies – ½ was received last week via ACH ($43,989.25). Tim will order automatic touchless toilets & sinks for park bathrooms and city hall bathroom. Labor will be done internally.
- Jesse Gray drain – Tim will call City of Brookfield to get the jetter scheduled.
- Trees on city lot – Done.
- Terry Keller lights – Waiting on call backs from contractor. Overloaded transformer by Rudy Schwagers house, affecting neighborhood, as well. Council discussed and asked Tim to work with electrician to replace transformers at both locations, taking supply underground.
- Pothole on Lewis St – Still waiting on asphalt.

New Business

Tim Nickell's stuff

- Request made by Brad for some park maintenance at shelter house.
- Nelson mentioned occasional low water pressure. Tim will look into it.
- Aerator at water plant went out. Got replaced.

Clerk's stuff

- Approval of bills
- Utility account updates/account adjustments approval
- Approval of financial reports
